

UCanGo2 is your primary resource to help students plan, prepare and pay for college

A college access initiative of the Oklahoma College Assistance Program (an operating division of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education), UCanGo2 is a comprehensive outreach program to help students plan, prepare and pay for education after high school.

UCanGo2 provides free resources and services that empower educators, counselors, campus personnel and community partners to demonstrate the value of higher education, inspire confidence to support academic achievement and help families overcome barriers to educational access and success.

We know that no matter what a student's lifelong goal is, one thing is true: education beyond high school — whether at a college, university, technology center or trade school — will lead to more job opportunities and higher earning potential. That's why we provide free specialized online instructional materials and information to support family college planning.

Our goal is to equip you with creative, clear and relevant tools that help students and parents prepare for college and develop a plan to pay for it. We want students to know that education after high school will open doors and make you a stronger candidate for what comes next.

Talking to students about completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)? UCanGo2 offers free FAFSA educational materials for campuses, high school counselors, parents, students and community partners. Check out StartWithFAFSA.org for helpful information and to view FAFSA completion videos in English and Spanish. You'll find our FAFSA tools in the Educators section at UCanGo2.org.

PARTNERS

UCanGo2 equips campus and community partners with publications and tools that strengthen their services for Oklahoma families as ambassadors for higher education. We help our partners plan effective student and parent events, provide FAFSA education and support early college planning.

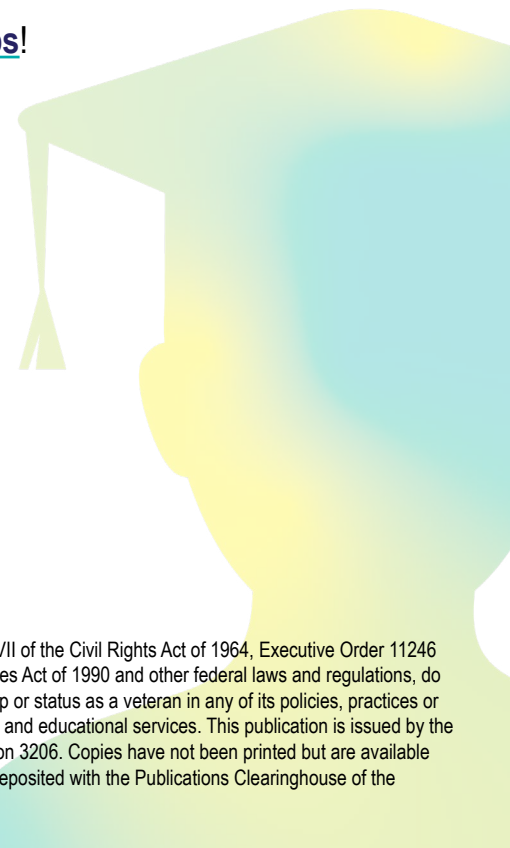

EDUCATORS

UCanGo2 helps counselors, educators and administrators create a college-going culture in schools by providing a full range of college planning resources, including information about academic requirements and finding the right institutional fit, ICAP activities, career exploration tools, FAFSA educational materials, scholarships and much more. UCanGo2 also provides customized train-the-trainer sessions for educators and administrators. Our student workbooks, instructor guides and other teaching tools empower counselors to help students reach their higher education goals.

STUDENTS

Higher education is possible for everyone no matter their circumstances or economic situation, and managing work, family obligations, community involvement and school can be challenging. With a little determination, any student can attend a university, college or technology center and be on their way to a great career. Encourage students to visit UCanGo2.org today to find helpful information about planning, preparing and paying for college.
